

What's all the noise about Global Warming?

Pete Johnson, the leader of Duval Audubon's Global Warming Initiative, will briefly discuss the current effects and likely consequences Global Warming. We will also discuss recent local and statewide executive support for initiatives to address Global Warming. The talk will conclude with a discussion of local grassroots opportunities; in other words, how can you get involved?